COTTON HARVEST SEASON OPENS

"Our Town" by J. B. WHITE

Six proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas will be voted upon by the people August 23rd. As usual there is little general interest in the measures. Those who sponsored them will see they are enacted, if possible. Some of them are good and some are bad, mostly bad. Next week this column will start discussing these proposed amendments. If you wish to be informed of their provisions read this column for the next few issues.

Liberties of the people are gradually being submerged. The Constitution is the only safeguard against total dissolution of justice. If the people lose it their greatest heritage in government will have been destroyed forever. The late Joseph Weldon Bailey said: "No good Angel has yet come to earth to roll the stone away from the sepulcre of human liberty." Ignorance and lack of information often result in bad legislation. The Herald will give the facts, and reserves the right to express opinion.

Many factors enter into the making of a newspaper, whether it be large or small, and the excellence of the finished product naturally depends to a large extent upon the opportunities which its field offers to the editor and publisher.

But there is one fundamental quality which is important to every newspaper, regardless of its size, and that is honesty of expression. Commenting on this point some time ago, the Montgomery Advertiser said:

"What counts in judging the chara-

NEW MACHINERY FIRM WLL OPEN IN CITY

The Cameron Farm Machinery Company with Cecil Cone as manager and part owner is the newest Camron enterprise.

Mr. Cone until recently with the Mauritz-Baldwin Corporation and the International Harvester Company, said Tuesday he would make announcement soon of the location for the business and would use newspaper space to introduce his new line of implements.

Mr. Cone says the company will sell and service Allis-Chalmers Tractors and Farm Machinery.

With Mr. Cone will be Jos. Slavik, Jr., who has an interest in the business. Others are associated in the company just organized but Mr. Slavik is the only one to be active at this time with Mr. Cone.

Mr. Cone has been identified with the implement business in Cameron for years and knows farming and farm requirements.

Muse In 100 Car Chevrolet Club

John Muse, sales manager for the Grabein Chevrolet Company has been awarded membership in the Chevrolet 100 car club.

The honor for Mr. Muse came this week to owners of Chevrolet cars in the form of an announcement by mail from Mr. Grabein's agency.

FRITZ OTTMER DIES BEN ARNOLD HOME

Fritz Ottmer, 59, was found dead in the yard of his home near Ben Arnold at day break Monday.

He had been shot. Beside the body lay a shot gun from which a shell had been discarged. Justice of Peace Womack Brasher returned a verdict of suicide following an inquest held a short time after the death of Mr. Ottmer had been reported here.

Married Here

When news came of the death of Mr. Ottmer many fiends in Cameron were sincerely bereaved. They had known him for many yars as a fine citizen and substantial farmer. No cause for the manner in which he died has been found, although he had seemed despondent a short time prior to his death.

Mr. Ottmer was born at Industry in Austin county.

Funeral services were held from the residence near Ben Arnold Tuesday with interment in the Ben Arnold Cemetery.

He owned a farm near Ben Arnold and had been prominent in the life of the community with his estimable family.

Buried at Ben Arnold

He is survived by his widow and four children; two brothers, Bill Ottmer, Thorndale; Herman Ottmer, Austin; two sisters, Mrs. C. F. Nolte, Ben Arnold and Mrs. O. C. Nolte, Ben Arnold.

SHERIFF RECAPTURES MAN WHO ESCAPED

Oliver Mauldin, wanted in Lamesa, Dawson county, on two felony charges was arrested here recently but escaped jail before Sheriff Gus White could come and return with him to Dawson county.

Mauldin was re-captured by Sheriff R. M. Kennedy and Deputy Clarence McCall Friday night at the Joe Penisky home near the Burleson county line, where he had been since he walked away from the fail here on Friday, July 2, the day after he was arrested.

Mauldin was wanted for the kidnapping of his four year old son last November, officers said. The child was given over to its mother Saturday afternoon.

LEGION MEMBERS TO ELECT OFFICERS HERE

Cameron's Legion men will elect officers on Tuesday night August 3rd it was announced by E. W. Streetman, adjutant.

A committee will announce nominations in its report to the meeting and there will follow election of officers for the next fiscal year.

Another important matter will be the election of delegates to the state convention in San Angelo August 22 to 24th.

Mr. Streetman said the Post here has under consideration a plan to charter a bus and take the Cameron and other delegates overland to the convention.

Members of the post are urged to attend the meeting on August 2nd which is the regular meeting date for the post.

Temple citizens presented the six boys and girls and Miss Downs representing their city with handsome gifts of appreciation, for recognition on Temple Day at the Fiesta, which was attended by nearly 500 from Temple.

COWMEN FORM DEFENSE AGAINST COW THIEVES

Defensive alliance against cow thieves was the important motive that led stock men to organize a county livestock association here Saturday.

R. L. Batte was named president; E. Vogelsang, Cameron, First Vice President; L. S. Cunningham, Gause, Second Vice President; John B. Henderson, Cameron, treasurer; Homer Nabours, county clerk, Secretary.

Board Named

An executive board was appointed as follows:

Offer Rewards

A constitution was adopted and by laws to govern the association. Rewards are to be offered for the arrest and conviction of cow thieves.

Near the close of the meeting H L. Yeager of Maysfield obtained passage of a motion asking that the committeeman contact city officers in regard to killing of cattle for meat not inspected. Bills of sale were at one time required on every animal slaughtered in Cameron. A city ordinance requires inspection but does not prohibit farm meat being sold in the city.

COTTON GINS SAY "READY TO RIDE"

Four Cameron cotton gin systems say "Ready to Ride" in this issue of The Herald. They are Slocomb Gin Co., Weems Gin, Matyastik & Sons and Boedeker's Gin.

Cameron has ginned several bales, the first bale reaching the city on July 22, twelve days ahead of the 1936 first bale.

Indications are picking will be under way within the next week. The crop, due to hot weather will be harvested fast on the up lands. In the bottoms where production of a bale to the acre is reported in places, will be late maturing.

Rain Needed

Rain is needed badly for young cotton and to mature some of the old cotton. Heat devastation has been bad for the past week and some weevil infestation is reported.

Cameron cotton gins are among the best in the south and their facilities are large enough to take care of any amount of cotton. The market levels here are always the highest possible and farmers will find a generally higher price in Cameron.

HERALD MUSEUM IS OPEN TO PUBLIC

The Meuseum at The Herald office is now open to the public.

The exhibit, formerly housed separately is now a part of the office space and may be seen by the public without restrictions. You are welcome to visit our building.

The collections are limited due to space. Some 25,000 flint specimens have been boxed up and placed under lock. Thy are a part of the collection of J. B. White.

GEORGE CONE BURIED IN CAMERON FRIDAY

Funeral services for George Cone, 37, former resident of Cameron were held from the residence of a sister, Mrs. W. L. Turner in Cameron Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Cone died Thursday morning at 6:15 in St. Joseph's hospital in Houston. He had been ill for one week and suffered a brain hemorrhage shortly before his death. The body was brought to Cameron from Houston. Mr. Cone lived in Freeport with his wife and their daughter, Sue Helen.

Born at Burnet

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cone of Cameron. He was born in Burnet. The family moved to Cameron when George was nine years of age. He was graduated from Yoe High School and was a star athlete. For a time he was employed under A. F. Mitchell, county engineer and figured prominently in the construction of Milam county's road system. After graduating from Yoe High school he attended Baylor Uni-

J. C. Penny Manager Arrives In Cameron

Mr. Howerton, manager of the J. C. Penny store in Cameron arrived in the city this week and is directing personally the arrangement of interior furnishings of the store.

No announcement has been made as to the date of opening the new store, now rapidly being completed. It will be ultra modern and one of the most beautiful stores in central Texas.

Howerton has taken living quarters in the Judge John Watson home.

MRS. WILLIAM ROGERS BURIED HERE TUESDAY

Death claimed a beloved Cameron woman, Mrs. William R. Rogers, 55, Monday morning at 6 o'clock after a four month's illness. She died from heart ailment and phlebitis.

A tribute is she was a wonderful mother and a devoted wife. During her life she gained the love and admiration of many, both young and old, who mourn her loss, realizing they have lost a good neighbor, a thoughtful, loving and kind friend.

Funeral From Home

Funeral services were conducted from the residence on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. J. Coy Williams, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. O. C. Acrey of the Presbyterian church and Rev. J. P. Love, Episcopal church, officiating. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery with Albert Collins, Gene Smith, Bill Wallace, John Jeter, Fritz Fahrendorf, Frank Cheeves, Paul Laake and Frank Walzel as pall bearers.

Born at Maysfield

Mrs. Rogers was born at Maysfield and was Miss Lena Mae Avriett, the

FIRST BALE IS GINNED AND GOOD CROP SEEN

Milam County's first bale of the 1937 cotton crop was sold here Saturday by Homer Reed of San Gabriel.

The bale was ginned late Thursday by Don Slocomb at the Slocomb Gin Company. The gin was maintaining its record for getting the first bale.

Mr. Reed was well pleased with his reception here when he became the first farmer to sell a good staple from the new crop. Secretary Paden of the Chamber of Commerce and A. J. Triggs made a canvas of the business men and a remium of $94.70 was raised.

The premium consisted of cash and merchandise and practically all business firms in the city had a part in the premium.

Bale Brings Good Price

The bale weighed 503 pounds and was auctioned off on Saturday by Secretary Paden and was purchased by F. C. Fahrendorf for 12 1-4 cents per pound.

The first bale in 1936 was ginned on August 3rd and the bale this year is 12 days ahead of the first market of last year.

Mr. Reed expressed his appreciation in a special card of thanks in this issue of the Herald.

Good Crop Prospect

Estimates of the 1937 crop were about the same as last week although some were fearful that the intense heat had caused great damage over the light lands. In the bottoms weevil infestation has been reported but the extent has not yet been ascertained.

Indications were the county would harvest a 50,000 bale crop. The sand region has a better crop than usual and generally production is promised.

Homer Reed Thanks Business Men Here For 1st Bale Prize

Homer Reed of San Gabriel, farmer who produced Milam County's first bale of 1937 cotton in a note of thanks to the business men of Cameron said:

"I wish to thank the business men of Cameron for their contributions to the premium given me for marketing the first bale of 1937 cotton in Cameron. I received $94 in cash and merchandise besides the money received for the cotton. This is a splendid premium and I think the business men are to be commended for their interest in the first bale and the farmers. Thanking again each and everyone, I am,

Sincerely,
Homer Reed.

PARNELL AWARDED KEY AT ARLINGTON

Delegates of four hundred Future Farmers chapters met in Arlington Thursday for the annual convention.

Kinnard Griffin and Von Hickman, C. H. Yoe delegates, and E. D. Parnell, adviser, represented Cameron. Buckholts, Sharp and Rockdale were aslo represented.

The honorary Lone Star Farmer degree, an award given to those who have rendered meritorious service to the Texas Association of Future Farmers, was conferred upon 17 candidates. E. D. Parnell, Cameron teacher, was among the group and received the Golden Key.

Shock Kills Aged Negress When She Learns of Fight and Fatal Stabbing Friday

Liza Jackson, 76 year old negro woman, died from shock late Friday night when she was told that Edward Young, 20 year old negro man had died from stab wounds.

The aged negress lived in the Young home at Maysfield.

Justice of Peace John Thweatt at Maysifeld held inquests. He returned a verdict of death from shock in the case of the woman and murder in the death of Young.

Shortly after Young's death, DeWitt Patterson, negro, surrendered to Sheriff R. M. Kennedy and is being held on a murder charge.

Inquest at 3 a. m.

Justice Thweatt held an inquest at 3 a. m. on the McDaniel farm where Young lived. He had been stabbed earlier in the night while attending a negro church service at Pond Creek church. Patterson was standing at a window talking to two negro girls when Young walked up. The fight followed.

Young was stabbed in the back, the knife blade reaching the heart.

NOTICE

To The Public

A great drawing card for the out of town photographer is the supposed idea and SALES talk that they being a large business can deliver a class of work that cannot be furnished by the local man.

It is true that Our Studio has not attempted to supply the So-called Etching type of photograph because it has been so commercialized by some studios and the value of that particular type of picture is so varied by these different studios that we have purposely left it out so that our photographs will not be rated along with machine made products. Instead we try awfully hard to give each of our patrons individual attention and work towards furnishing them with photographs characteristic of themselves. Therefore we of course try to avoid the FADS and specials that so many studios depend upon for their patronage.

However, we can and will supply any type or grade of photograph that any one could desire, and for example we will make any one a 6-Proof Sitting for $1 and from your selected proof we can supply you with the 11x14 (Etching) in any quality at $1 each. (These are printed commercially by a studio in another city and delivery can be made 15 days after proofs are selected.)

A LEGISLATIVE CROWN

(Editor's not: This article is published as a news item and represents the personal views of Mr. Ferguson only.)

The true criterion of the efficiency of a public servant is: has he done more good than he has harm?

If he has, then we have received in public service all that we may ever expect from any official because none are perfect and for the same reason we can never expect a perfect administration of our governmental business.

In my humble opinion I think President Roosevelt has actually done for the public more than any president this nation ever had. Maybe some of the presidents have done less harm, but they did no good and tried to do no good. The true test is, did this or that president do more harm than good?

Mr. Roosevelt has done more good than harm, because he has had more opportunities to do good and he had courage to meet the responsibilities as they developed. He met the crisis of relief and like the Savior fed the multitudes. He met the bank crisis and for the time being at least has placed our nation on a sound financial basis.

He had courage to attempt to relieve the insurance, the railroad, and the labor troubles so that they did not bring permanent destruction to our economic conditions.

I freely admit that the most of these problems are not yet definitely settled, but the moral courage of our president has staved and steadied the hand of violence that has almost thrown us into a state of panic and revolution; and in so doing Mr. Roosevelt has done great good for the American people.

There are yet millions of unemployed and hungry people, and while these constitutional lawyers are yelping about packing the court, Mr. Roosevelt is yet busy with the problem of packing a hungry belly, and if the people will just hold up his hands he will settle that difficulty.

As a result of his eager desire to help the farmer, his administration has put through Congress the law to make an initial appropriation of $85,000,000 (millions) to provide loans to tenant farmers with which to buy homes at a low rate of interest without having to make any down payment.

With this start the government can and will in ten years advance enough money to buy at least a small home for every tenant farmer in the whole United States. As the result of this great work of this administration we will soon hear a new story and a new song from the heretofore forgotten masses, who will soon begin to talk about my home and my land and "My Country 'tis of thee I sing, Sweet Land of Liberty." hear a new story and a new song from the heretofore forgotten masses who will soon begin to talk about my home and my land and "My Country 'tis of thee I sing, Sweet Land of Liberty."

Suppose the Supreme Court should now hold this great benefaction for the tenant farmer unconstitutional, and hold that the same credit assistance has been extended to the banks, insurance companies, railroads, cities and counties can not for some technical reason be extended to the tenant farmer. Would anybody approve abolishing the Supreme Court altogether? As for me, if they hold this law unconstitutional, then let us abolish all of them and turn the country over to the anarchist and the communist.

Mr. Roosevelt only wants to do something for the good of the people and he does not want the courts to stand in the way. Do you?

There was a time

—when old fashioned heating methods blistered your face while your back shivered.

But now . . .

with natural gas service, winter can be just another pleasant, healthful season in the modern home.

A timely reminder

The tag end of summer warns that treacherous days of winter are on the way.

Do you remember the old days? Old-fashioned methods of heating . . . children wore heavy underwear and long stockings in order to keep warm . . . members of the family "huddled" in one or two rooms during cold weather . . . mother went shivering about the house with a shawl around her shoulders . . . someone was always "catching cold" — Remember?

There is a direct relationship between your family's health during winter months and the way you heat your home.

Sudden changes of temperature during the treacherous months of cold weather are dangerous. If you follow the old-fashioned practice of "huddling" in one or two rooms while the rest of the house remains unheated — YOU ARE TAKING CHANCES WITH YOUR FAMILY'S HEALTH. Plan now to have adequate heat and healthful temperatures in every room in the home this winter. It's the modern way to fight the "common cold."

The cold germ is responsible for more than two hundred million illnesses each year. Don't give a "common cold" an even break!

Don't put up with useless PAIN

Get rid of it

When functional pains of menstruation are severe, take CARDUI. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves, cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite, wear out your resistance. Get a bottle of Cardui and see whether it will help you, as thousands of women have said it helped them.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from their food.

Cattle Stealing Is State Wide Menace Says Gene Smith

"Cattle stealing is not only being carried on in Milam county but all over the state, and there is more cattle thieving being done now than ever before."

This was the statement made by City Marshal Gene Smith, who based his statement on the discussion at the City Marshal's and Chief's of Police Convention in Laredo, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, of last week which he attended.

The idea was presented before the convention that the state should have patrolmen to assist on the highways in seeing that every truck loaded with cattle had a bill of sale and that there should be a description taken of each head of cattle moved over the highways.

"Some one should be hired to keep watch on trucks, especially those around here late at night. This would probably curb a lot of cattle thieving," Smith said.

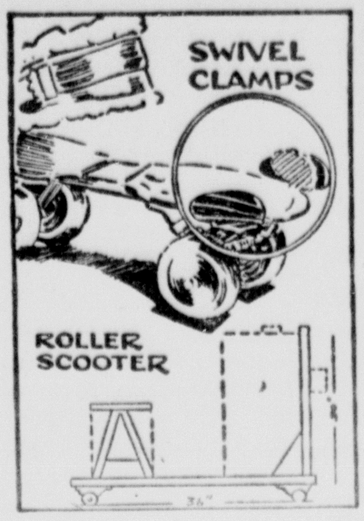
UTILITIES PROTEST

Abnormal increases in taxable values were being resisted by utility companies in Cameron, it was disclosed this week when representatives appeared before the equalizers. One utility was raised $50,000 and declined last year to pay county taxes because of a large increase.



Constant improvement in roller skates bespeaks a growing interest in the sport. One such significant improvement is the swivel clamp, illustrated above, which adapts the skate to varying types and sizes of shoes, thus giving the skate a better grip and greatly reduces the possibility of it coming off. The sketch below pictures how a home made roller scooter may be built on the truck section of a skate. Attach truck assemblies to footboard with truck brackets facing each other. Mount a wood steering bar crosswise of front upright. Brace steering post and (an optional seat) as shown. Solid lines in drawing indicate use of boards while the dotted lines indicate use of boxes.

Frank Newton Wins Oratory Prize In Camp Bullis Speech

Frank M. Newton, graduate of Schreiner and now at Camp Bullis military camp, won the grand prize for oratory on Tuseday night July 20th, taking for his subject "America In the Duel."

The account of the contest is taken from the publication Bulls-Eye at the canmp. Contest disclosed some deep thinking on the part of the contestants of which there were eight.

Mr. Newton began his address with the struggle of America to gain freedom from England. He closed with the 'isms' now prevalent in the current political history of the country.

E. S. Parr of Fort Worth won second prize and Lucius Phillips of Laredo won third prize.

The first prize was a gold medal won by Newton who is the son of Dr. W. R. Newton, state senator for the 13th District.

DIRECTORS CHAMBER COMMERCE DISCUSS

Chamber of Commerce directors in session Tuesday night succeeded in discussing a number of proposed aids for Cameron but maintained their average on inaction.

One of the proposals was to build a market for farmers. Those who remember will recall that this produce shed was offered to Cameron last year under government grant but the city lacked the energy to take advantage of it. Also a $12,000 agricultural building was available but has been lost to the city by inaction.

The Chamber decided to have a barbecue in August the date to be announced later.

A delegation of Houston business men are to be entertained.

The recent deodorant law was a bill put through the legislature by Senator W. R. Newton of Cameron shortly after the New London school blast when several hundred chuldren lost their lives.

WE PAY—NEXT DAY

We have closed another week with no very imposing record of constructive legislation, but with every appearance of having at least broken the log-jam that has been impeding all legislation ever since the so-called "court" bill was introduced months ago. The Senate on last Thursday by a vote of 70 to 20, voted to recommit the bill with the understanding that it would be so worked over as to remove the controversial parts and to bring out a bill intended to speed up litigation in all Federal Courts, and permit the Attorney General to intervene in suits in which the constitutionality of laws is challenged. I think most everyone can agree on these objectives and in fact they have already been approved by the House throught the passage of the various "Sumners" bills which I have heretofore mentioned, and for which I have already voted.

It is, of course, now too late in the session to expect any real completion of the legislatve program and many important measures will have to go over till next term. Actually the items to be considered before adjournment will be decided on in conference between the President and the party leaders, but it is evident that many measures will not receive action. It is still doubtful how soon Congress can adjourn but I hope it may do so before the first of September. I think it is possible that we may enact a permanent farm program and hope we can before adjournment, but I am told today that the Senate Committee on Agriculture has decided not to consider any bill. If this is true there will be no agricultural legislation.

There will probably be some kind of wage and hour legislation and it is likely that some parts but not all of the President's reorganization plan will go through. I doubt if the Housing Bill will come up and it does not look as if the Senate were gonig to act on the Neutrality legislation passed by the House, although I personally hope that they will, and I also hope to see a bill passed restricting war profits, but it seems doubtful whether it will be done or not.

On Thursday the Senate voted 79 to 19 to over-ride the President's veto on the bill extending the present rates of interest on farm loans. The House had already taken this action and this bill now becomes law and I believe will do much to enable thousands of farmers to retain ownership of their homes.

Friday the House passed a bill to establish a Cancer Research Institute in an effort to discover the cause and cure of this dread diseases. I supported the measure and only hope that it may be the means of bringing relief to some of the hopeless thousands of victims of cancer.

The President, General Manager and Attorney of the Brazos River District, together with a quorum of the Board of Directors, have been in Washington all week and we have all been trying to get the W. P. A. and the President to make available enough money to go ahead with the Possum Kingdom Dam. Both the President and Mr. Hopkins promised to build this Dam nearly two years ago. Since that time they have turned the work over to the Army Engineers who insist on building a much more expensive structure than that planned by the district, but the W. P. A. will not advance enough money to build the kind of dam their engineers want and they will not let us build the kind the district wants. It has therefore, been the effort of the Texas Congressmen and Senators as well as the Brazos District Directors to get Mr. Hopkins to increase his allotment. To this end, we visited both Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Bell, Director of the Budget, but to date do not know the result of our visit, although I think that there is a clear-cut obligation on the part of the government to go ahead.

Initiation Is Held For Woodmen Circle In Rockdale Thurs.

A number of representatives from the Cameron Woodmen Circle were guests of the Rockdale Grove, Thursday night, at a call meeting of State Manager, Mrs. Laura L. Kribbs. The meeting was called to reorganize and to resume the circle activities of the Rockdale Grove.

Six Initiated

There were several candidates for initiation, Mrs. L. E. Strickland, Mrs. Clint Henry, Miss Jessie Ferguson and Miss Gladys Curry, all of Rockdale, and Mrs. Gladys M. Watson and Miss Dell Hortmann of Cameron. The initiation was made very impressive with the help of the Laura L. Kribbs Willing Workers Drill Team, of Waco, under the direction of Mrs. Maude Arnold.

Refreshments Served

At the conclusion of the meeting, the W. O. W. were guests of the Woodmen Circle for refreshments. Ice cream and cake were served.

Those present from Cameron were, Mrs. Gladys M. Watson, Miss Dell Horstmann, Mrs. Ella McLerran, Mrs. Adella Horstmann, Mrs. Inez Angell, Miss Imogene McLerran, Mrs. John Hause, Mrs. Darlie Henrichsen, Mrs. A. E. Smith and Mrs. Ella Pitts.

Mrs. Gilbert McCollum of Houston has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Davis.

FARM CLUB NEWS

WINS CONTEST

A durable and well built closet for $6.50 was one of the things that helped Mary Alice Modesette of the Sharp 4H club to win the County Wardrobe Demonstrators Dress Contest. She built this closet of pine panel and boarding, and made it two feet wide, four feet long, and tall enough to extend to the ceiling. To make it as light as possible she painted the outside of it a light color, and papered it inside with a light paper. The paper she used was scrap paper with a floral design so she used it wrong side out in order to make it a solid cream color. The upper part of the closet opens separately and provides a storage space for extra bedding.

Mary Alice was also scored in this contest on the dress and slip that she made and modeled, the accessories she chose to go with the dress, her grooming, the records and reports she kept of her work, the pictures she had of it, and the narrative she wrote about it.

Mary Alice will be given a trip to Short Course in order to compete in the district and state contests.

WINS A TRIP

Because Evona Kuhn of the Ad Hall 4H club knows how to can good fruit products and is able to recognize the good and bad points in fruith canned by others, she will be given a trip to Short Course this August in order to represent this county in the State Contest. Evona proved her ability when she won first place in the County "Canned Products and Judging Contest for 4H Clubs" at the encampment July 9th.

She also has an outstanding record in her regular club work. Her wardrobe records shows that she has equipped a sewing box, planned her clothes and kept a record of expenditures, made 19 garments, mended nine garments, and helped two non-club members with some of their sewing problems. In her orchard work she planned and planted an orchard suitable for her family, prepared and served fruit to her family 12 times, canned 28 pts. of fruit and made 14 pints of jelly. In continuing her garden work from last year she has planted 100 onion plants, 150 tomato plants, one garden row of beans, one of English peas, and two of cucumbers. She canned 14 pts. of shelled beans, and pickled 20 qts. of cucumbers.

Evona estimates that her work this year has been financially worth $31.13 to her. She is a second year club girl and is 16 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Randles of California were recent visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Heitmann.

Mrs. Frank O. Beitel and daughters Virginia and Dorothy and son Lawrence and Mrs. Charles M. Harpole of San Antonio were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Law.

Boy Scout Gives Report on Jamboree Held in Washington

The Boy Scouts of America held their first National Jamboree at the nation's capital from June 29 to July 9, with three days prior to that in training camp. Dr. James E. West, National Scout Executive and Camp Chief, called it the Great Adventure. It was just that—a Great Adventure in every respect. There were boys from every state from all of the U. S. possessions and from twenty-five foreign nations. They lived in various climates and under far different conditions, but all were there with a single goal in view—the World Brotherhood of Scouting.

Sees Flood Area

En route to Washington, only one section of the country really interested me. That was the region so torn by the disastrous Ohio river flood. Debris was still scattered over the country-side. Houses, uprooted from their foundations, were to be seen where the waters had left them. Yet all the land was under cultivation and the people were carrying on courageously, as though nothing had happened.

Camps Set Up

The first four days were spent in setting up camp and becoming accustomed to the routine. New boys arrived each day and were greeted with shouts of "Where are you from?" Right then the swapping began. Our native horned frog could be easily traded or sold for thrity-five to fifty cents. Baby alligators from Florida were sold for as much as $2.50. The unlucky boys from foreign places were plagued by autograph-seekers. One Scotch Scoutmaster was asked to autograph a piece of paper. He replied "No, laddie, my Scotch blood won't allow that, I might sign in a book, but never on a blank piece of paper. Too much could be written above my name.

Washington Interesting

While in Washington, we visited many places of historic, scenic and governmental value. We visited the great capitol of the United States. The Senate was hotly contesting the Supreme court issue. At the library of Congress, we saw the Declaration of Independence and the constitution. Too, we saw the Gutenburg Bible and many old manuscripts written by famous writers and musicians. We went by boat to Mt. Vernon. It was a beautiful old place that seemed to demand reverence for its famous owners. My only regret was the brief time we were allowed to stay.

See the G-Men

I believe the most educational trip was to the Bureau of Investigation, the headquarters of the G-men. We were shown how the G-men patiently and scientifically solve the so called perfect crimes. They took us to the basement where there is a shooting range. There the govrnment agnts practice until they are crack shots with pistol, rifle, and machine gun. Annapolis was another interesting place. There at the U. S. Naval Academy we saw where our future naval officers receive their training. In the crypt of the chapel lie the remains of John Paul Jones, the father of the American navy. We were taken on a cruiser and shown home of the modern machines of war.

Museum Visited

Smithsonian Institute was also interesting. We saw the "Spirit of St. Louis," the "Winnie Mae," and Lincoln Ellsworth's plane—all record breaking planes. Everything imaginable could be seen there. Our last visit took us to Arlington National cemetery and to the embassies. The most interesting parts of that trip were the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the most of the "Maine" and General Robert E. Lee's old home. That afternoon we left for home, after one of the greatest adventures of our lives.

ODOR IN GAS WILL START ON JULY 26TH

Odorization of natural gas on a part of the Lone Star Gas System began Monday, July 26th, Community Natural Gas Company officials announced. The project is in complance with a recent law passed by the Texas Legislature as a safety measure.

the system's main lines to permit the detection of leaks, and will not affect the usefulness of the fuel, it was explained. When the gas is burned, no odor is noticeable and it will give off no nauseating fumes nor any gas injuries to clothing, rugs, drapes or furniture.

Placed In Mains

The odorant will be first introuced into main lines at Gordon, Trinidad, and a point east of Groesbeck, Texas; later at Holli and Fox, Oklahoma, and at a point south of Chillicothe, Texas, and at number of intermediate points. The odorizing project, reaching most of the towns served by the system in Texas and Oklahoma, will be completed in about three weeks.

Effect Not Immediate

Introduction of the odor will not be noticeable for several days, it was pointed out, because of summer conditions and the low load on the system. Towns farther away from the points of odorization will receive its effects later than those closer to these points.

Call a Plumber for Leaks

To some persons the odorant will smell like fumes from a refinery, to others like burning rubber. It will be definitely noticeable if a leak in a line exists or if a cock or burner is left open and unlighted. The company has advised its customers to call a plumber if repairs are necessary. It was pointed out that odorization will not create a hazard, but will warn consumers if a leak occurs in a line or connection.

The Lone Star System is proceeding with its odorization plans now in order to avoid the possibility of waiting until the fall and winter demand starts.

cter of a newspaper is whether it reasons with intellectual honesty in arriving at its conclusions, or makes an appeal to prejudices and emotions in order to influence the reading public to accept its opinions."

We may add that every editor frequently faces the necessity of making a decision on this very point. It is easy to tell the reader what he wants to hear, to take the popular side, to run with the pack. But it takes courage sometime to express an opinion, however sound, in opposition to the prevailing sentiment.

But in such a case, no editor worthy of his responsible calling ever hesitates. He gives his honest opinions, regardless of who agrees or disagrees with them.

He knows that such a policy will entail criticism, and sometimes loss of business. But he also knows that his newspaper will be respected—and a newspaper that can command the respect and confidence of its community usually succeeds in the long run.

Fred Reno at the Palace of Sweets announces he has installed a new cream making system for his Palace of Sweets.

Roosevelt Congress Delaying Program Hurts Cotton Price

The Roosevelt administration will be charged with neglect of the cotton farmer if the present congress fails to enact a farm program, a statement from the agricultural office here indicates.

Farmers will attend a meeting in Waco, July 29th which will ask speedy action on the farm bill. Texas farmers will be bankrupt again similar to 1933 if a program is not forth coming.

Cause Price Drop

A number already say that uncertainty over a program has caused a price decline. The statement from administration sources in Washington as interpreted in a dispatch from Louisana caused a sharp drop in cotton Monday. Confiscation of the crop by ill advised and premature reports as to production is feared.

The Ten Little CHISLERS

TEN little chislers, cuttin' all the time;
One cut a little more, then there were nine.

NINE little chislers, feeling kinda great;
One forgot overhead, then there were eight.

EIGHT little chislers, looking up to heaven;
One took a credit risk, now there's only seven.

SEVEN little chislers, thought they wouldn't mix;
One quit the business, and that leaves six.

SIX little chislers, all still alive
One cut the price again, now we have five.

FIVE little chislers, cryin' for more;
One couldn't pay his bills, now we have four.

FOUR little chislers, all full of glee;
One forgot freight rates, so we have three.

THREE little chislers, didn't know what to do;
One met a low price, now there's only two.

TWO little chislers, a-cuttin' by gum;
One cut the other's throat, now we have one.

ONE little chisler, left without a penny;
He can't cut no more, so now we haven't any.
